

50 WAYS TO LEAVE YOUR LEGACY

It's easy to host your own third-party fundraiser to support the Komen Philadelphia Affiliate and leave your legacy in the breast cancer movement. Peruse the list and get your ideas flowing—at least one is bound to be perfect for you.

- Neighborhood bake sale
- Garage sale
- Neighborhood yard sale
- Block party
- Rummage sale at your child's daycare
- Used book sale at school—great for college, too
- Holiday parade with sponsored floats
- Beach/indoor volleyball tournament
- Golf tournament
- Soccer tournament
- Tennis tournament
- Host a beauty day at your favorite salon
- Craft sale
- Potluck dinner at your place of worship
- Quilting bee
- Knitting party
- Community center auction
- Video game tournament
- Turn your neighborhood pink for breast cancer awareness month (Oct.): Sell pink mailbox
- ribbons, pink-bulb candles, pink bunting or pink jack-o-lanterns
- Hold a sock hop for seniors
- Elementary school art show
- Door-to-door housecleaning
- Sell pink lemonade at little league games
- Neighborhood pizza party
- Roller-rink party for school
- Choral concert
- Marching band festival
- Elvis impersonation contest
- Masquerade ball at the local high school
- Casino night
- Bridge tournament
- Poker tournament
- Car wash

- Dog walking for summer vacationers
- Neighborhood “Pet Olympics”
- Chili cook-off
- Best-dressed “Parade of Pets”
- Hoagie sale
- Super Bowl party
- Dance-a-thon
- Back yard bands contest
- Create a wishing well in your yard for spare change of passersby
- Youth basketball tournament
- Mexican fiesta for your office
- Camp-out marathon—earn pledges for every hour in the great out doors
- Bar/Bat mitzvah projects
- Birthday/anniversary party—in lieu of gifts ask for donations
- Meteor/eclipse party
- Fishing derby
- Host a “mini Race for the Cure” around your neighborhood!