

Dear Friends and Supporters:

Thank you for your interest in conducting a fundraiser on behalf of Komen Philadelphia! More information about our work, the people we serve, and the Komen Philadelphia Race for the Cure can be found online at <http://www.komenphiladelphia.org>.

If you would like to advertise an event/promotion to the public as a Komen Philadelphia fundraiser, we can help you by sharing information with our loyal and committed local supporters. This could potentially include:

- Sharing information about the event/promotion on our website;
- Including information about it in our monthly e-newsletter;
- Publicizing it through our smartphone app (for iOS and Android phones); and
- Posting information about the event/promotion on the Komen Philadelphia facebook page.

Please note that all businesses MUST complete a three-step process BEFORE advertising a fundraiser to the general public using the Komen Philadelphia name:

- 1) Complete the attached application and return it to Komen Philadelphia.
- 2) Once the application has been approved by our CEO, Komen Philadelphia staff will send you a standard contract to sign.
- 3) Forward a certificate showing proof of liability insurance, with Susan G. Komen and Komen Philadelphia named as an additional insured, as described in the attached guidelines.

Over the course of our 23-year history, we have been honored and privileged to work with hundreds of business owners and staff members throughout our region on successful fundraising initiatives that have been exciting, fun and inspirational. We hope you will be the next to join our Komen family, and help us further our promise: to end breast cancer forever.

With great appreciation,

Susan G. Komen Philadelphia®

\ Please note that the Komen Philadelphia serves 15 counties in PA, DE, and NJ. If your fundraising concept involves the national distribution of a product or selling goods online to the general public, please call Susan G. Komen headquarters at 1-877-GO-KOMEN.*

Guidelines for Conducting Special Events, Benefits or Promotions to Benefit Susan G. Komen Philadelphia

Thank you for your interest in benefiting Susan G. Komen Philadelphia. Donations to Komen Philadelphia help advance our promise to save lives and end breast cancer forever by empowering people, ensuring quality care for all and energizing science to find the cures. There are three steps you must follow before advertising an event or promotion to the public using the Komen name:

Step 1: Complete and submit the application. It will then be reviewed by Komen Philadelphia CEO Elaine Grobman. We will do our best to contact you within 2-3 days with the CEO's decision.

Step 2: Once the application has been approved by our CEO, Komen Philadelphia staff will send you a standard contract to sign. This agreement must be signed by you and Komen Philadelphia before you can begin promoting the event.

Step 3: Provide an insurance certificate showing proof of general liability insurance coverage in the amount of $1,000,000 per occurrence. The certificate must name Susan G. Komen and Komen Philadelphia as Additional Insured's, solely with respect to the Event.

Please note that while Komen Philadelphia may be able to provide guidance for your event, we are unable to provide administrative or logistical assistance for the event (e.g., distributing invitations, compiling RSVP's, selling tickets, sitting on steering committees, etc.). If the event is approved, you should be prepared to provide all of the support necessary to organize and conduct the event, including PR and costs for the event.

Things to consider before you submit an application...

- As a responsible steward of public funds, Komen Philadelphia works to keep expenses at or below 25% of gross revenue as we advance our mission to eradicate breast cancer as a life-threatening disease. Likewise, we expect an individual or organization that organizes and conducts an event to benefit Susan G. Komen to ensure that the expenses incurred for the event do not exceed 25% of the gross revenue generated by the event. Exceptions may sometimes be made for first-year events, on a case-by case basis.
- You will be responsible for obtaining any necessary permits for the event, and for obtaining general liability insurance for your event. The following entities must be named as additional insured's on the liability insurance for the event:

Susan G. Komen
5005 LBJ Freeway, Suite 250
Dallas, TX 75244

Susan G. Komen Philadelphia
125 South 9th Street, Suite 202
Philadelphia, PA 19107

- If you conduct an athletic or sporting event, you must require all participants to sign a waiver/release and must retain those waivers/releases for an agreed-upon period of time following the event.
- All products or other item(s) that will be sold at or in connection with the event must be non-controversial in nature and approved in advance by Komen Philadelphia.
- Komen Philadelphia works with various underwriters and sponsors for events that we conduct. In order to ensure that there is no conflict with our sponsors or underwriters, you must inform us of any potential event sponsors or underwriters for your event before you secure them.

Other things to keep in mind. . .

- You must obtain written permission from Komen Philadelphia to use the organization name and/or trademarks. COMPLETION OF THIS APPLICATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE PERMISSION FROM KOMEN PHILADELPHIA TO USE KOMEN'S NAME, LOGO OR TRADEMARKS.
- If your application is approved, we will send you a binding Agreement that must be signed by both the parties. You may only use Komen's name and trademarks in accordance with the terms of that executed agreement. All references to Komen in publicity and promotional materials, on tickets, invitations, etc. should say:
  - ◊ Susan G. Komen Philadelphia (for the first reference)
  - ◊ Komen Philadelphia (This is acceptable for subsequent references.)
- You will be responsible for all publicity for the event.
- All publicity material related to the event must be reviewed and approved by Komen Philadelphia before it is printed and/or distributed. This includes, but is not limited to, invitations, press releases, newspaper/newsletter articles, merchandise, etc.
- In accordance with the Better Business Bureau Wise Giving Alliance's guidelines for charitable promotions, all advertising and promotional materials for your event must clearly disclose to the public the specific amount of money from the consumer's purchase that will be donated to Komen Philadelphia (e.g., "$10 of each ticket purchased," "10% of the sales price of this product," etc.).

Making your donation...

- You must send the donation form in your agreement with your donation. Please also include an accounting of those proceeds. The agreement will specify the time frame for the donation, usually 30 days following execution of the agreement.
- Sponsors, underwriters, attendees and participants must make their payment for the event directly to you, as the individual or organization conducting the event. You cannot offer sponsors, underwriters, participants or attendees the option of writing their checks for the event fees directly to Komen Philadelphia for tax purposes. You also may not make any other statement or take any action which would imply that those payments are tax-deductible.
- If a sponsor, underwriter, attendee or participant is interested in making a donation directly to Komen Philadelphia (separate and apart from the event fee), we will be pleased to accept and acknowledge those donations.
